Re: United States v. Jose Alicea 08-cr-264 (JFK)

Honorable Judge Keenan,

After discussions with the government, and with its consent, we respectfully request that defendant Jose Alicea's time to file motions be extended and the case be extended two months. I request this time because of family circumstances and an unforeseen schedule that included my travel to Central America and Florida on other federal matters. This time will also serve to allow both parties to continue the ongoing negotiations for a possible disposition in this case.

Both parties request that the time for the above adjournment be excluded for speedy trial purposes.

Thank you for your consideration and patience.

Respectfully submitted,

Ramon W. Pagan
